Headlines of the Day: 23-10-2025

Last updated by Enlite Team

Sources: The Indian Express, The Hindu

Headline	Source	Syllabus
As OpenAI launches Atlas, why AI firms are betting big on web browsers	The Indian Express	GS 3| Science and Technology
The challenges faced by the TTP to Pakistan	The Hindu	GS 2| International Relations
Scientists use ‘atomic stensils’ to make designer nanoparticles	The Hindu	GS 3| Science and Technology
India aims at self-reliance in solar physics, space weather	The Hindu	GS 3| Science and Technology
Officers issuing content notice to be made more ‘accountable’	The Hindu	GS 2 | Governance
NHAI to deploy 3D sensors to identify potholes, road cracks across 23 states	The Hindu	GS 2 | Governance
Indian embassy in Kabul will help ‘regional peace’: Taliban spokesman	The Hindu	GS 2| International Relations
The tailwinds from lower global oil prices	The Hindu	GS 2| International Relations
India must step in as a supplier of solar power to sustain its industry	The Hindu	GS 3|Economy
India should be more welcoming of foreign scholars and experts	The Hindu	GS 2| International Relations
NFC successfully develops tech for production of high Residual Resistivity Ratio Niobium ingots	The Hindu	GS 3| Science and Technology
Great Green Wall in A.P to save coastline from degradation	The Hindu	GS 3| Environment

Headline	Source	Syllabus
Govt. proposes mandatory labelling of AI-generated content on social media	The Hindu	GS 2 | Governance
Ahead of pan-India SIR, EC tracks voter mapping progress	The Hindu	GS 2 | Polity
As talks on Ladakh resume, MHA officials offer special provisions under Article 371	The Hindu	GS 2 | Polity
Modi, Trump speak; US, India call accounts differ	The Hindu	GS 2| International Relations